Anna Lembke, M.D.

Professor, Medical Director of Addiction Medicine, Program Director of the Stanford Addiction Medicine
Fellowship, and Chief of the Stanford
Addiction Medicine Dual Diagnosis
Clinic at Stanford University School of Medicine.

Dr. Lembke will speak on the subject of sex and pornography addiction, including the effects of dopamine on the brain and the relationship between dopamine and addiction.

In addition to her faculty, administrative, and leadership duties, she is a practicing psychiatrist. She is also the author of more than 100 peer-reviewed papers and two books on addiction: Dopamine Nation: Finding Balance in the Age of Indulgence and a book on the opioid crisis, Drug Dealer, M.D.-How Doctors Were Duped, Patients Got Hooked, and Why It's So Hard to Stop.

---

S.P.A.A. is a fellowship of people who share their experience, strength, and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from sex and pornography addiction in all its manifestations.
